

This project was funded by the European Union's Rights, Equality and Citizenship Programme (2014-2020).

PROTECT - Preventing sexual and gender-based violence against migrants and strengthening support to victims

The PROTECT project will contribute to the coordination and/or adaptation of support services for sexual and gender-based violence (SGBV) to include refugees, migrants and asylum-seekers who are currently residing in the twelve implementing countries (Belgium, Bulgaria, Croatia, Greece, Hungary, Ireland, Italy, Malta, the Netherlands, Poland, Slovenia and Spain).

OBJECTIVES

- Strengthening and adapting national support services for SGBV to include people in migration;
- Building capacity on SGBV for professionals working with and for people in migration
- Empowering and informing refugee and migrant communities and asylum-seekers of SGBV

120+

Trainings for 1800+
participants

1300

Info packages in 20+
languages

8

SOPs/Guidelines to be developed/reviewed/contributed to 200+

Info sessions in 12
countries

1

animated video available in 20+
languages

ACTIVITIES

Regular stakeholder meetings at national and regional level

Development/review of SOPs or Guidelines on SGBV in the context of migration

Development and facilitation of capacity-building tools and trainings for professionals on SGBV in the context of migration

Development and dissemination of informational materials

Information sessions on the prevention of SGBV for refugees, migrants and asylum-seekers

Learn more about the project: <http://iom.hu/protectproject>

PROJECT PARTNERS:

